

Conference Reports 2014-15

2-4 August 2015	Dr. Holly Chung attended The Asian Conference on Second Language Acquisition and Teacher Education (SLATE 2015, Hiroshima, Japan) and presented the paper "Teachers' and students' motivation in online learning".
16-17 June 2015	Dr. Paul Fung attended Rethinking Early Photography at University of Lincoln, United Kingdom, and presented the paper "'Something that cannot be silenced': Reading Walter Benjamin on photography".
11-13 June 2015	Dr. Maggie Ma attended CAES International Conference – Faces of English: Theory, Practice and Pedagogy at the University Hong Kong, Hong Kong, and presented the paper "Exploring learning-oriented assessment in L2 writing".
11-13 June 2015	Dr. Gavin Bui attended CAES International Conference – Faces of English: Theory, Practice and Pedagogy at the University Hong Kong, Hong Kong, and presented the paper "Task-readiness and Lexical Performance".
15-17 April 2015	Dr. Catherine Wong attended Research Agendas in Literary Linguistics in University of Mainz, Germany, and presented the paper "Duality of voice, language and narrative of diaspora in Kazuo Ishiguro's work".
13-16 January 2015	Dr. Rebecca Ong attended the International Journal of Arts & Sciences' (IJAS) Asian American Conference for Teaching and Education in Nanyang Technological University, Singapore, and presented the paper "Mid-career Faculty Networks: A Qualitative Study Exploring Hong Kong Mid-career Faculty Career Choice and the Role of Developmental Relationships".
13-16 January 2015	Dr. Holly Chung attended Singapore 2015: Asian American Conference for Academic Disciplines in Singapore, and presented the paper "An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis of English-as-a-second-language (ESL) Teachers' Motivational Beliefs in Developing Different Pedagogical Strategies".
8-11 January 2015	Dr. Catherine Wong attended 2015 MLA Convention in Vancouver, Canada, and presented the paper "H. P. Grice's Conversation Theory and the Voice, Language, and Narrative of Diaspora in Kazuo Ishiguro's Work".
15-17 October 2014	Dr. Catherine Wong attended 14th International Language, Literature and Stylistics Symposium in Dokuz Eylul University, Turkey, and presented the paper "Collapse of Narrative: a study of narrative distance in the confessional narrative in Kazuo Ishiguro's work".