HSUHK hosts “Reptile Interaction Day” to foster a new understanding of nature’s ecology

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong Students’ Union and the Hong Kong Beetles Research Association organised a “Reptile Interaction Day” on campus to allow participants to explore the wonders of natural ecology and gain an appreciation for different reptiles through direct interactions. The event also featured educational talks that highlighted the living conditions, dietary habits and care tips for these creatures. Various reptiles, including ball python, tegu lizard, and rainbow stag beetle, were showcased, so that participants could observe them closely and take photos.

About The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) is a non-profit private liberal-arts oriented university with six Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities and Social Science, Transdisciplinary Studies and Translation and Foreign Languages) and over 6,000 full-time students. Adopting the unique “Liberal + Professional” education model, HSUHK aims to nurture young talent with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitudes, moral values and social responsibility.

Aspiring to be a leading private university in the region, HSUHK features a primary focus on undergraduate education, top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, unique residential college system combining living and learning, interactive small class teaching, very close student-teacher relationship, RGC-funded impactful research, and excellent student development/support services. HSUHK is listed the 7th (overall) in the ASEAN+ region, the 1st in the Greater China region, and the 1st in Employability as per the 2023 AppliedHE ASEAN+ private university assessment by the Singapore-based AppliedHE. It is also listed among the top 200 worldwide on “Quality Education” and “Decent Work and Economic Growth” in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021.
