150 HSUHK runners join forces for the Hong Kong Marathon 2025

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) established the HSUHK Team this year, an initiative to inspire the University community to embrace physical activities and prioritise their health. Today (9 February), nearly 150 runners, including staff, students, and alumni, participated in the Hong Kong Marathon 2025, setting a record for participation numbers and showcasing the University's spirit of unity and determination.

HSUHK's senior management team, including Professor Simon Ho, President of HSUHK; Professor Joshua Mok, Provost and Vice-President (Academic and Research); Professor Jeanne Fu, Vice-President (Learning and Student Experience); Dr Josiah Chan, Vice-President (Organisational and Development); Dr John Leung, Associate Vice-President (Knowledge Exchange); and Ms Antonia Yeung, Associate Vice-President (Development and Campus Services) were present to support HSUHK Team members, underscoring the University's commitment to fostering a vibrant and supportive community. Additionally, a spirited cheering team comprised of HSUHK students rallied along the course, further encouraging camaraderie within the HSUHK community. The University also arranged massage services for runners at the HSUHK booth at Causeway Bay Sports Ground.

About The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong

The Hang Seng University of Hong Kong (HSUHK) is a non-profit private liberal-arts oriented university with five Schools (Business, Communication, Decision Sciences, Humanities and Social Science, and Translation and Foreign Languages) and over 6,000 full-time students. Adopting the unique “Liberal + Professional” education model, HSUHK aims to nurture young talent with critical thinking, innovative minds, caring attitudes, moral values and social responsibility.

Aspiring to be a leading private university in the region, HSUHK features a primary focus on undergraduate education, top-quality faculty members, award-winning green campus facilities, innovative degree programmes, unique residential college system combining living and learning, interactive small class teaching, very close student-teacher relationship, RGC-funded impactful research, and excellent student development/support services. HSUHK is listed the 7th (overall) in the ASEAN+ region, the 1st in the Greater China region, and the 1st in Employability as per the 2023 AppliedHE ASEAN+ private university assessment by the Singapore-based AppliedHE. It is also listed among the top 200 worldwide on “Quality Education” and “Decent Work and Economic Growth” in the Times Higher Education University Impact Rankings 2021.
